

Timothy M. Radonich
1230 4th Street
Bremerton, WA 98337
(206)898-4646
timothy@whatrain.com

OBJECTIVE

Join a skilled team producing quality software that gives me a opportunity to solve interesting puzzles and to expand my skill set while contributing to the team's success.

WORK HISTORY

Apr 2005 Dec 31 2009

Archdiocese of Seattle, Sacred Heart Parish and St Joseph Parish (Systems Administrator)
Responsible for all aspects of an 18 machine Windows based network including diagnosis, repair, and replacement. MS Server 2003 and Windows XP

Provide support to individual staff with training or software acquisition to facilitate their jobs.
Additional projects included Database programming, SQL Queries, PHP, Java, and C# projects.

Versatile Mobile Systems(Software Engineer, Java, HTML, DTD/XML)

Jan 2000 to Mar 2003

Implement a Java Multi-tiered MVC Web Application using XML, JSP, EJBs, and Oracle DB.
Including XML for configuration and input/output, resourceBundles for I18n, and installation and configuration of Weblogic 6.0 Server for deployment using CVS for source control and Junit for unit testing. Buildmaster using ant. Built user interface panels for mobile devices.

North Seattle Community College (Computer Science Instructor)

Fall 2000 through Spring 2005

Taught second level course: "Introduction to Object Oriented Programming Using Java".

WhatRain WWW Services (Owner, Operator, Webmaster)

September 96 to present

Designed and set up Site including pages to attract visitors and most client pages.

Used HTML 3.2, HTML 4, Stylesheets, CGI, JavaScript, Perl, Java. (Visit www.whatrain.com)

Built PHP MySQL application. (<http://worldbeer.info/welcome.php>)

Pacific Northwest Bell (Computer Operator)

March 77 to July 82

Ran two Univac 1130s and all peripheral devices, as a remote job site for test programs.

EDUCATION

Master Programming Diploma

International Correspondence Schools Visual Basic, C and Access. October 96.

Computer Operations

PNW Bell 40 hours March 77.

High School Diploma

J. R. Rogers, Spokane June 72.